How are personal research activities reflected in teaching activities?	Teaching and researching are to a significant extent inter-connected. While teaching, I observe, assess, provide feedback and evaluate. These steps allow data collection for subsequent analysis to gather evidence-based understanding for making necessary continuous improvements. Based on some research I conducted, clear rules, clear instructions, group work, and peer assessments are important features of effective classroom management I successfully apply in my classrooms. They are required to create a learning environment that is conducive, encouraging and well-controlled as expected.
